Viral Hepatitis Nurse-led Models of Care Forum

Sharing innovation and knowledge

Supporting the HIV, Viral Hepatitis and Sexual Health Workforce

Date: Saturday, 12 August, 2018
Venue: Hotel Grand Chancellor Adelaide, 65 Hindley Street, Adelaide SA 5000
Time: 8:30am - 5:00pm
Cost: Free. Lunch and refreshments will be provided

This one-day forum will showcase innovative nurse-led models of viral hepatitis care. The forum is an opportunity for nurses who are providing care to people living with, or at risk of viral hepatitis, to come together and share knowledge about initiating and maintaining innovative nurse-led models of care in the community.

Hear from nurses implementing or working towards nurse-led models of care in Australia and New Zealand. Explore the challenges, benefits and opportunities of nurse-led clinics across the continuum of care to improve the outcomes for people with viral hepatitis.

Attend the forum

A limited number of scholarships are available. Priority will be given to nurses working in primary care settings.

Scholarship applications close 26th May 2018.

Registration is free and open for expressions of interest. Priority will be given to nurses working in primary care settings.

Successful applicants will be notified by the 14th June 2018

The program will consist of oral presentations and poster presentations by nurses who are implementing innovative nurse-led viral hepatitis models of care as well as interactive sessions on strategies to assist with planning a nurse-led clinic in your health service. The interactive sessions will include discussion about the use of the APNA Building Blocks – Explaining the essential elements of a nurse-led model.

The forum will be facilitated by Jacqui Richmond (Executive Officer - Eastern Melbourne Primary Health Care Collaborative, ASHM Clinical Advisor)

Share your knowledge and learnings

The committee welcomes abstracts from nurses who are delivering or working towards viral hepatitis nurse-led models of care. Early career nurses or nurses who are new to presentations are encouraged to submit an abstract. Support will be provided through committee mentorship.

Abstract submissions close 26th April 2018
